bravery, in the cause of truth, and their names should not perish nor be forgotten; and in days to come, when opportunity offers, services should be rendered for them, that they cannot render for themselves; those ordinances which God has provided for the salvation of His children, they should be attended to in their behalf. I trust their memories will live, and their names be handed down in honorable remembrance with the names of our brethren who left here as missionaries. Though they were new converts, comparatively speaking, yet they have shown all the zeal, all the devotion, and all the courage for the truth that could be expected of those who had lived for years in the Church. One of them, I think, is said to have been only 19 years of age—Martin Condor—and I pray God to bless that family, bless those who survive, and have them in remembrance today; that as we remember our brethren who went forth from our midst, as bearers of life and salvation, so may we remember the others in common with them. Also Mr. Garrett, who lived on the same creek, and in the same neighborhood, where Brother Jones, I believe, was stopping at the time of this dreadful occurrence. He also should have our blessings and be had in kindly remembrance in our midst.

REMARKS ON VARIOUS SUBJECTS BY PRESIDENT GEORGE Q. CANNON, DELIVERED IN PARIS, BEAR LAKE COUNTY, IDAHO, SUNDAY AFTERNOON, AUGUST 10, 1884.

REPORTED BY JOHN IRVINE.

I will read a portion of the 84th Section of the Book of Doctrine and Covenants, commencing at the 14th paragraph: "Which Abraham received the priesthood from Melchizedek, who received it through the lineage of his fathers, even till Noah;
