we have been gathered together. Every- one who is here that has been brought from the nations has been brought by the manifestations, it may be said, of miraculous power. He has accomplished in our case or cases, that which has been fore- seen by the holy prophets from the begin- ning. It is a most wonderful work, the gathering of this people together, as they are here this day in these mountains. The manner in which the spirit of God has been poured out upon the people who have received the Gospel, and the man- ner in which they have been moved upon to forsake their old homes and their old associations, and part with their friends and relatives, and move among a peo- ple with whom they were not acquainted, and to a land of which they had but a lit- tle knowledge—this is the wonder that is being wrought in the midst of the na- tions of the earth. Many people ask for miracles, and they plead with the El- ders when they go out to show them a sign to prove to them that they are indeed the authorized servants of God. That which we behold in these moun- tains today is one of the greatest signs, is one of the greatest miracles which has ever been seen or exhibited among the children of men. You may read all the records that we have, either sacred or profane, and there is nothing that ap- proaches this work in which we are en- gaged, and that which has been accom- plished by the outpouring of the Spirit of God upon the people among the var- ious nations. Where in the history of our race has there been such a thing taken place as that which we witness? Where from the beginning has a peo- ple been gathered out from all the na- tions of the earth—moved upon by one common impulse, a simultaneous im- pulse, an impulse of the same character, impelling them in every land where they have received the everlasting Gospel, to gather to a strange land as the Latter- day Saints are being gathered to this land? No magnet ever drew or attracted to itself that to which it has affinity, with greater power than has the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ drawn to it from the midst of the various nations those who have an affinity for the truth. It has been irresistible in its effects. No sooner has the sound saluted the ears of the elect of God throughout all these United States, throughout Canada, throughout the various islands of the sea, upon the contin- ent of Europe, and in far-off Asia, Africa and Australia—no sooner have the glad tidings of salvation been proclaimed by the servants of God, under the auspices of the Almighty, than there has sprung up in the hearts of those who have thus heard the truth an irrepressible and irre- sistible desire to leave their native lands, and to identify themselves with the peo- ple of God in these remote regions, in these Rocky Mountains. To me, when I look at it, this seems the most wonderful work that has been accomplished among the children of men from the beginning. There is nothing that we can read of in God's dealings with the children of men that compares in magnitude and in its wondrous effects with this work with which we are identified. And yet men ask for an evidence respecting the truth of this work! They ask for signs and miracles, as though there is any miracle which could be wrought in our sight that would compare in the very least degree with this great and miraculous work that is being wrought under our very eyes, and which we ourselves are help- ing to bring to pass. It is not as though the people of one nation were gath-
